Tsubasa

In this thrilling card game, participants will strive to achieve victory in the national high school championship final, either as the coach of Tsubasa Ozora's Nankatsu or as the coach of Kojiro Hyuga's Toho Academy. The game is played over two halves, each consisting of six rounds, with multiple phases in which kick-offs, goal shots, defensive moves, and unstoppable passes will determine which team becomes the champion among these eternal rivals.

YOKAI PAGODA

A game of Yokai Pagoda is played over 3 rounds. During your turn, and each round, place offerings around the pagoda to try to earn the favor of the Yokai. Unused offerings at the end of each round, like broken promises, turn into negative points. Play cards to avoid receiving negative points and end the round to catch your opponents by surprise. But don't rest on your laurels! When you have multiple cards of the same type, only the lowest one counts!

YUMMY KITTY

Seras-tu capable d'attirer le plus grand nombre de chats à ta gamelle ? Yummy Kitty est un jeu pour 2 à 5 joueurs, d'environ 15 minutes, où chaque joueur devra attirer les chats des autres joueurs avec de la nourriture alléchante, et quoi de mieux que des poissons ? Mais... attention ! Une fois dans ta gamelle, les chats peuvent être attirés par les souris qui rôdent. Fais-les jouer avec des pelotes de laine pour qu'ils ne préfèrent pas courir après quelque chose de plus tentant et savoureux, comme les souris.

ILULIAQ

Can you attract the most cats to your bowl? Yummy Kitty is a game for 2 to 5 players, lasting around 15 minutes, where each player must lure the other players' cats with tempting food—what better than fish? But... be careful! Once in your bowl, the cats can be lured away by the mice lurking around. Keep them entertained with balls of yarn so they won't be tempted to chase something tastier, like mice.
